

Caitlin Donohue

Teaching Artist
Early Childhood Specialist

603-321-4806 / caitdono23@gmail.com / caitlin-donohue.com

SUMMARY

Dedicated educator specializing in literacy, social skills, and theatre arts with over 10 years of experience teaching children ages 0-18

EDUCATION

Boston University School of Communication, B.S. In Journalism
minors in deaf studies & sociology

CURRENT EMPLOYMENT

Early Childhood Teacher

Book Nook Enrichment, NYC | Jan. 2019-present

- Fosters nurturing learning environment for children ages 0-8
- Empowers child's independence as they separate from their caregiver for the first time
- Strengthens fine motor and communication skills through creative games and engaging curriculum
- Advances early literacy skills through storytelling, phonics, original songs, and interactive games

Assistant Director/Vocal Coach

Broadway Youth Ensemble, NYC | Feb. 2016-present

- Teaches challenging harmonies and premiere medleys to 50+ young performers (ages 8-18), whose credits include over 40 Broadway shows, National Tours, and recordings
- Choreographs original pieces, leads physical/vocal warmups, leads rehearsals
- Musically conducts ensemble at several events and public appearances
- Makes musical and choreographic adjustments to suit the talents of the choir

SELECT PRIOR WORK EXPERIENCE

Drama Therapist

Our Future School, Brooklyn | Sept. 2018-Jan. 2019

- Taught social skills and coping strategies to children with autism grades K-6 through imaginative play, storytelling, dramatic games, and artwork
- Implemented ABA therapy-based programs
- Offered specially designed instruction to meet the goals and needs of each child

Children's Workshop Director

Priscilla Beach Theatre, MA | June-Aug. 2015

- Served as director and designer of set, sound, and costumes for two large-scale children's productions
- Taught and led dozens of relevant theatrical games to polish students' improvisational skills and improve ability to support their scene partners
- Offered individual line and character meetings outside of normally scheduled rehearsals
- Maintained consistent communication with parents regarding students' individual and group progress

SKILLS ASL working proficiency, working with children with special needs, teaching through technology, implementing IEPs, lesson planning, course & website creation, social media management, study skills tutoring, hundreds of theatre games, comedic improvisation, choreography, individualized acting/vocal coaching, CPR certified.